

European Nationalism?

Faith in Europe Briefing (Online)

Thursday 18th January 2pm UK / 3pm CET

We invite you to join us to look at the issue of European nationalism - ways in which European identity can be shown in disturbing ways. How can faith communities across Europe respond to this?

We will be welcoming Hans Kundnani, former Europe programme director at Chatham House and author of the new book Eurowhiteness, in dialogue with Liam Allmark, Head of Communications, Fundraising and Advocacy at the Jesuit Refugee Service. Register to attend here [\[link\]](#)

Faith in Europe is an educational charity. Its aim is to brief its member representatives of British Churches and the wider public on political, social, and cultural issues across Europe, from faith perspectives. It is a Body in Association with CTBI (Churches Together in Britain and Ireland). Its registered Charity Number is 1059018.
